Creating a Vector Background Although Photoshop is focused on creating and manipulating images, you can create a truly professional-looking image in Photoshop with just a few steps. And you can start creating now—this tutorial will take you through the process in only 10 steps. Step 1: Choose File > New. Step 2: Choose Vector Brush from the Rectangular Shape tool. Drag and drop a photo onto the canvas. Step 3: Drag and drop the same photo again onto the image. Now you have a background with two overlays. Step 4: Set the color for the two layers in the Layers palette. Step 5: Highlight the lower layer in the Layers palette to apply a lock to it. Set the background to transparent and lock this layer using Layers > Lock > Transparency. Step 6: Set the foreground to white to bring attention to the image. Step 7: Import a vector image to use as a transparency layer. Step 8: Apply a mask to create your final picture. Starting a New Document Start with a new document and click OK to accept the settings in this document. Step 1: Choose File > New. Step 2: Choose JPG/JPEG from the Image Format to save the file, which is the default setting. Step 3: Choose Photoshop > Preferences > General. Click on the OK button. Step 4: Click on the small box to the right of the Save As type. Step 5: Choose JPG. Click on the OK button to accept the new settings. Step 1: Create the first photo. Step 2: Select the Rectangular Layers Tool (R) and place a photo in the middle of the document. Step 3: Click on the Move tool (V) to drag the photo. Step 4: Click on the Rectangular Layers Tool (R). Step 5: Click on the photo. Drag and drop a second photo to the top. Step 6: Hold the Alt key and move the two photos to the left. Step 7: Press the Ctrl and shift keys to move both photos to the right. Step 8: Press the Alt key and move the two photos up. Step 9: Press the Ctrl key and move the two photos down. Step 10: Click the Create a New Layer (

Fred L. Petersen Fred L. Petersen (December 2, 1893 – June 14, 1983) was an American businessman and politician from New York. He was born on December 2, 1893, in New York City. He attended the public schools. In 1917, he was drafted into the U.S. Army, but his enlistment was terminated before he saw service. In 1920, he married Minnie M. Jensen (1892–1967), and they had three children. Petersen was a pioneer for commercial space flight and was one of the first prominent people to argue for the feasibility of commercial space flight. He was a member of the committee to construct and build the Empire State Building in New York City. He was Vice President in charge of Business of Sperry Products Company from 1944 to 1952. In 1952, he was appointed as the Director of the recently re-formed National Space Institute. He attended the annual meetings of the National Space Institute and the Defense Advisory Committee for Aeronautics from 1952 to 1963. He was the Vice President of the National Space Institute from 1963 until his death in June, 1983. He died in 1983. Sources New York State OCR death notice for Fred L. Russia's authoritarian and repressive policies on migrants and refugees have brought millions of unwanted migrants into the EU, from where they are subjected to widespread human rights abuses including arbitrary detention, inhuman and degrading treatment, and persecution and deportation. 2016 saw the largest number of migrants arriving by sea into the EU – half of them in the last 10 days. This year, there is a particularly acute humanitarian crisis in the sea zones of Greece, Italy and Spain, where vulnerable people are stranded or trapped in insecure conditions. How do people arrive? Many people arrive by sea in unseaworthy inflatable boats or by rafts. Some people say they pay between $5,000 and $7,000 to human smugglers. Migrants want to reach a country where they

Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia ATLANTA, _____ September 27, 2017 The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order: A18A0211. MARK D. FOX v. KAREN L. FOX. Mark D. Fox filed this application for discretionary appeal from the trial court's order entered July 12, 2017. We, however, lack jurisdiction. To be timely, a discretionary application must be filed within 30 days of entry of the order to be appealed. OCGA § 5-6-35 (d). The requirements of OCGA § 5-6- 35 are jurisdictional, and this Court cannot accept an application for appeal not made in compliance therewith. Boyle v. State, 190 Ga. App. 734 (380 SE2d 57) (1989). Because Fox filed his application over six months after entry of the order he seeks to appeal, we lack jurisdiction to consider this application, which is untimely filed. Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia Clerk's Office, Atlanta, _____ 09/27/2017
